Norman B. Schwartz (1932 - 2018)
Norman B. Schwartz

Newark - Age 85, passed away Wednesday, January 31, 2018.

Born in Brooklyn, NY in 1932, Norman was the first of his family to attend college. He married the love of his life, Delia "Dilly" (nee Tyvand) in 1955. Norman was a professor emeritus in the Department of Anthropology at the University of Delaware.

He discovered San Andres, Peten, Guatemala during fieldwork while completing his PhD. Over the next six decades, Peten and San Andres remained his passion and lifelong center of his research, informal teaching, and mentoring.

The tributes and condolences from around the world - sent from school mates, colleagues, students, and countless friends - shows the profound impact he had on almost everyone he met.

Preceded in death by his wife, Dilly; Norman is survived by his children, David, Dvora, Michael, Jonathan (Amy), and Carlos; grandchildren, Rachel, Adam & Linette; dear friend, Rosalie.

He was interred next to his wife at the Jewish Community Cemetery. Shiva will be 4:00 PM Sunday, Feb. 4 at the late residence. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the Friends of the IDF Lone Soldiers Program (www.fidf.org) or the Carlos Soza Scholarship Fund, please contact Brian Gurr at briangurr72@hotmail.com.
